Remembering the Holy Souls in Purgatory

While on earth, we, the Church Militant strive to become holy. Only during earthly life can a soul affect its own holiness. At the particular judgment when entering eternity, each soul will be judged by Jesus Christ with one of three outcomes.

- A soul is completely holy, filled with grace, and enters Heaven.
- A soul is completely unholy--even one mortal sin--contains no grace and enters Hell.
- A soul is not completely purified, contains some grace, but has unconfessed venial sins and/or temporal punishment due to sins, and enters Purgatory--the Church Suffering.

The Holy Souls suffer the pain of purification willingly, knowing that they will eventually enter Heaven--their souls have been saved through Jesus' death on the cross. Once in eternity a soul can no longer help itself. The living assist the souls in Purgatory to enter Heaven and become part of the Church Triumphant. We have a duty to help them. We earn a partial indulgence if we

- Offer prayers, sacrifices, good deeds, and alms for the Holy Souls.
- Offer Mass and Holy Communion or have a Mass said for souls in Purgatory.
- Ask our guardian angels to visit the Holy Souls to comfort them.

A plenary indulgence may be obtained once each day to release one soul from Purgatory. To obtain a plenary indulgence (remission of all temporal punishment) for a Holy Soul, named or unknown, do one of the following four devotions:

1. Family Rosary or pray it with others in church or chapel or
2. Scripture (read ½ hr.) or
3. Adoration (½ hr.) or
4. Stations in church or chapel

Plus do all of these next 3:

- a. Holy Communion (each day one wishes to gain the plenary indulgence).
- b. Prayers for the Holy Father (Our Father and Hail Mary (each day).
- c. Confession within 20 days before or after (have no attachment to sin, even venial sin).
